The National, Autograph Collection

120 N Robinson Ave | Oklahoma City, OK 73102

The National, Autograph Collection transforms approximately 190,000 square feet of the 1932 First National Bank office tower into an inspired hotel with 146 guest rooms. The restoration is part of the First National Center project and includes the preservation of murals, decorative painted ceilings, stone columns, cast stone, metal finishes, vault doors, and safes. Located at the corner of Park Avenue and Robinson Street, the building has been widely considered one of Oklahoma City's top architectural treasures.
